LONDON, December 4.—The Messrs. Semens writes to the Times, explaining the loss of the steamer Plato. They say the heavy sea, which carried two boats away, also tore their davits, thus causing openings to be made in the side of the steamer, through which came unseasonable quantities to extinguish the fires, when the machinery ceased to work and the ship was helpless.

PARIS, December 4.—The newspaper orders of the Republican party state that the message of President McMahon to the Assembly is directed against legitimists, while the journals published in the interests of the Conservatives believe it is pointed towards the Radicals. The public generally is favorably impressed by the message.

LONDON, Dec. 4th.—Mr. Tooke, Secretary of the Emma Mining Company, having refused to produce the books and papers before the Special Examiner, Vice-Chancellor Mallus, on behalf of Mr. Askew, petitioned for a winding up of the Company, and ordered their production, remarking that the case was one requiring investigation, and it would be scandalous to the administration of justice if the petition had not been granted, that the principles which might apply in winding up a bone-fide going concern, could not apply to a company which has suddenly broken down after enormous sums have been obtained from shareholders upon the faith of statements which to all appearances were utterly untrue.

ROME, Dec. 4.—The Pope has absolutely refused to recommend the Bishop imprisoned in Rome to resign their "Sees" as a measure for reconciliation of their differences with the government of the country.

MADRID, Dec. 5th.—There was a slight mutiny in this city yesterday by a battalion of troops, who refused to obey all orders to march to the North. Proceedings of the Cheap Transportation Convention.

RICHMOND, Dec. 4.—In the Cheap Transportation Convention today, all the substitutes for report by the Committee on Water Routes, were withdrawn, and Col. H. C. Cobell, of Virginia, offered as a compromise, a resolution recognizing, in addition to the lines of the transportation recommended by the United States Senate Committee on Transportation, the proposed Rock Island and Heve Pin Canal, in Illinois, connecting the Mississippi with the Illinois river, and the canal, the chain of water ways to the Seaboard, as a project of great merit, and urging upon Congress the necessity of the speedy construction of the work. This resolution was unanimously adopted.

The resolutions of Col. Trobel, of Ga., showing the necessity of cheap transportation to improve finances, were adopted.

The railroad men came to the front and the rest of the session was spent in discussing the advantages of railroad transportation and in hearing an able paper from Engineer Green of New York, on the use of iron boats. The name of the association was changed to the American Board of Transportation and Commerce.

Col. Cobell, on behalf of the citizens of Richmond, tendered to the Convention an excursion in carriages to visit the places of interest in the city, which was accepted for ten o'clock to-morrow.

To-night's session will be long as they will adjourn sine die.

Important Foreign News.

London, Dec. 5.—Sir Arthur Gordon has been appointed Governor of the Fejee Islands.

The Daily News correspondent in Berlin telegraphs that Lobate, in the Reichstag, continued until a late hour amid scenes of great excitement. The evening papers issued editions giving reports of the proceedings down to midnight.

A deputation of Roman Catholic ladies from England have arrived in Munster. They come to congratulate the West Phalian Contesses.

The Foreign office has a despatch from Aden, dated Nov. 28th, stating that a Liverpool's journal have reached Zanzibar in safe hands.

made in connection with the recent mutiny.

It is reported that the Deputies from Alsace and Lorraine were so incensed at Bismarck's speech on the 13th ultimo, that they threatened to withdraw from the Reichstag and quit Berlin, but their friends remonstrated with and induced them to stay.

A ship, supposed to be the Pontiac, from Sunderland for Bombay, has been burned at sea and twenty-six of her crew perished.

Fresh cases of small pox are reported at the Liverpool work house among the steerage passengers of the steamer Abbotsford.

PARIS, Dec. 5.—The general impression is the message of President McMahon made no change in the political situation. The Legitimists are firm in their refusal to vote for the constitutional bills. The meeting of the Left Centre to-day rejected the proposition that the immediate discussion of bills be moved in the Assembly, and resolved to await the initiation of the Right Centre and the Government.

BERLIN, December 5.—At the conclusion of Bismarck's speech, alluding to attempted assassination in the interest of his church, in addressing the Ultramontane, he said: "You may thrust Kullman away, but you nevertheless belong to us." Hence the house became into cheques, which were long and long continued. As this applause subsided, cries of "Pfui" were heard from the ultramontane benches. The President declared these exclamations unparliamentary. Bismarck, "I have no right to censure such exclamations. Pfui is an expression of disgust and contempt. I myself am not a stranger to these feelings, but hope I am too polite to express it."

Windhurst, ultramontane, rose and said that in his speech from the balcony in Koenigsberg, Kullman gave the signal for attack of the Centre. It was wrong to incite one party against another. They were drifting without that towards war.

Bismarck repelled the accusation. He pointed to the continued incitement in the ultramontane press, and to the events which led to the attempt of Kullman on his life, and added: "Were I to believe half of what the ultramontane papers say against me, who knows what I should do?"

Lasker declared that Windhurst's remarks about inciting to war were unworthy of a representative of the people. The President called Lasker to order.
